

AAUP Officers and Council, 2023–24

AAUP officers are ex officio members of the Council. A list of Association officers, general counsel, and Council members, as of January 1, 2024, follows, with dates of term expiration noted at the end of each entry. The distribution of states in each region is based on the redistricting plan approved by the Council on June 15, 2019. Council members whose region have changed will continue to serve in the region in which they were elected until the completion of their current terms.
